Heanthonng's Last Wish narrates the strength of friendship and love's uncertain, unpredictable course. Fate pushes Souk (Sook) into Heanthonng's front door, literally; they immediately fall for each other though their innermost feelings remain unspoken and linger on for some time. Once these feelings are revealed, the world belongs to Souk and Heanthonng fills with nothing but smiles and laughter. But their jubilation soon turns into frowns and tears. Fate has pushed the two young people together; by similar token, it creates a huge space between them. Misunderstanding arises and becomes a source of distrust for Heanthonng, who turns her back completely on Souk. Lost and confused, he strongly believes that Heanthonng has overreacted; however, she perceives the circumstances differently.
