Showdown at Screech's Hollow (Noah's Park) Richard Hays

Where did the animals go when they left the ark? As the animals left the ark, they scattered far and wide so that once more the earth would be covered by God's creatures. One small group, though, traveled together. They discovered a beautiful forest where a sparkling waterfall emptied into a peaceful pond. There were berries and nut to eat and a warm cave for shelter.

One of the animals, a wise from named Ponder, suggested that this was a special place made just for them. The other animals agreed, and they decided to make the forest theirs. Ponder, who remembered the great man who had saved them, called the forest Noah's Park.

These are the adventures of the animal that lived in Noah's Park.
