Ever wondered how to begin as an artist? what steps to take? What age to start with art? whether you can make a career out of art? or just simply why are artists interested in art?, well this book is for you. I once asked these questions myself when I started getting serious with art which was in 2007 and now it is 2015 and a lot of those questions I am still asking myself though a lot of the time I wish I had a book to help me or keep me challenged and excited. With lots of interviews from artists from around the world, they give their own personal experiences and advice of how they began their journey's to share with you. Some of the artists are professionals others are hobbyist's but what you will discover they all share one key element to any artist Patience.
