WeeP not my Child, "The Heartcry Of a mother " by Chinyere Nwakanma Chinyere Nwakanma
In this new book, Chinyere Nwakanma author of The Beautiful Garden Poems shifts her focus from issues around the world to women in Africa. WeeP not my child is a collection of human stories told in poems. The poems are written in very simple poetic language. Some of the poems are songlike with the poet touching some basic issues around the world. Societal issues involving women in modern day Africa still remain the same as it was during the precolonial era. These are the issues she highlighted in this book. While displaying a high sense of humour in the lyrics, the poet expressed sadness over these issues in lyrics such as the dead man's grave, hot birth, circumcision, apology, girl child labour, bride price, inlaws, the househelps all revealing the status of women even in modern day Africa. The announcement of the engagement of Britain's Prince William to his beauty Kate, brought so much joy and cheers around the world among many lovers of the British royalty. The poet wrote a poem for the couple titled, For Prince William and Kate to celebrate this long awaited good news. Poetry lovers will love this book and will enjoy the stories told in the lyrics. A good book to make people laugh.
