TIME IS MONEY 1 Keith T. Hodge

Lyric is convinced money will solve all of his problems. For a minute it seems that his time can be better spent without the worry of making ends meet but that theory only lasts a minute before the old adage 'more money, more problems' becomes true. Lyric's soft spots for gorgeous women who can satisfy him sexually, override basic common sense all the while he is dealing with a territorial pregnant ex- whom he's still very much in love with. Insert a new job that he inherits with his millions and Lyric is basically back at square one.

What is a man to do when TIME IS MONEY and it seems as though you can't have one without the other. Lyric quickly finds out being a rich man is harder than being broke. Find out how he manages to duck and dodge the drama that comes with too much money, too many women, and a demanding boss that you never applied for a job with- in the continuation of the TIME IS MONEY series.
