Heather heard the click on the other end of the line and she slammed the phone back on the wall.

She couldn't believe that Cassidy was messing with her, that she wasn't going to let it go and she was afraid that she was going to lose Jennifer altogether unless she came up with a plan to leave town or move to a different state, she smiled and thought about talking to Jennifer about it when she was done working.

She was sure that Jennifer would love to make a new start, not having to worry about anything and she was going to like getting rid of Cassidy, just the thought of that alone she knew that Jennifer would go for it.
