Blind Side K.B. Nelson

Love has no rules, and it has no limits. To love, you must lose. To lose, you must truly love first.

I accept the part I played in the demise of my marriage.

I accept the things I cannot change.

I'm a cheater. I'm a whore. I'm an outcast in that place I left behind the second the first embers fizzled against the cracks of the night sky.

It wasn't supposed to be this way. Anyone with the faintest understanding of decency would know this to be true. But it did happen this way. It went exactly like this, because maybe that's the way things had to go.

There was no way out, and just when I thought of pulling the proverbial trigger, he appeared to me.

He was the student.

And I was his teacher.

And he saved me in every way I imagine one could ever be saved.

So, he became my teacher and I became his student as he taught me how to love again.
