Martin Luther King, Jr. and the Freedom Movement (Makers of America) Lillie Patterson

The Makers of America set offers engaging and inspiring portraits of the private lives and public achievements of some of the most significant people in history. These critically acclaimed volumes make skillful use of primary sources to capture the excitement of a period and provide a rich historical context. They offer a fresh, stimulating approach to learning about important chapters in history, including many events, movements, and issues often neglected by traditional narratives. This volume tells the story of Dr. King's nonviolent struggle to achieve his goals.
