Fin Butler and the Ice Queen (Children's Fantasy)

Do you love Children's Fantasy Books? Then Fin Butler is here in this new and exciting second adventure in the series by Philip Janvier.

'I could not put it down!' 'Well written, full of action and it captures you from the first page.'

Fin Butler and the Ice Queen is a fantasy adventure for children aged 10-12 and older. Winter comes early to Ravenswood House for Fin Butler and his friends Jenny, Eiry and Sed. Locked into a winter of discontent, they are thrown into an adventure where they have to protect their new friend Chloe from those who would exploit her powers. Forced to make difficult choices, Fin and his friends face fire and ice as they seek to discover what the evil shadow that lurks under Ravenswood House is. But there are Dragons outside intent on taking over the world. .

Should the Guardians fail, then the world will enter into a new Ice Age that nobody will survive. Full of sympathetic characters, wildly imaginative situations, and countless exciting details, the second installment in the series assembles an unforgettable magical world and sets the stage for many high-stakes adventures to come.
